Report Despite cold temps and wind, 7 hardy hikers arrived at the trail head at 8:50 am after a smooth ride in the new van. 3 additional hikers met us at the trail head. Setting out at approx 9 am with a brisk pace into the wind, we started to warm up and enjoy the day. We encountered some snow along the trail but thankfully no ice. City views were spectacular as well as views of Cabezón. Arriving at the Elena Gallegos picnic area at 10:35, we enjoyed a snack before heading back. We arrived at the van at 12:05 and the center at approx 12:45. Thank you Sky for your very professional driving and Paul for the pictures.
